

Project Management By The Numbers

75%
75% of IT executives believe their projects are "doomed from the start."

1:6
One in six IT projects have an average cost overrun of 200% and a schedule overrun of 70%.

Project management is one of the most in-demand skill sets. All projects benefit from effective management processes. CompTIA Project+ validates the skills you need to lead projects with confidence, complete projects on time and make sure you stay within budget.
